Client Results

Pauleanna Reid, Founder of the WritersBlok, has over 100 testimonials on LinkedIn from past and current clients, colleagues and industry peers. Here's what some of our client-partners have said about our level of excellence at the WritersBlok.

"Pauleanna's team at WritersBlok truly helped me to make my ideas sing. Though I am a writer, I had trouble getting my thoughts in order when asked to deliver a huge speech. Pauleanna and her team were able to help me tell my story in a clear and concise way that both inspired and entertained. As I continue in my career, I have no doubt that I will continue to use WritersBlok for my speech writing needs. They were professional, thorough, and delivered an amazing product. 5 stars!"

- Claire Sulmers, Founder & CEO, Fashion Bomb Daily

"Pauleanna quickly became my go to copyeditor who reviews all of my speeches. Her team at WritersBlok has also been instrumental in creating copy for marketing collateral materials including web content, bio's, one-sheets, proposal decks etc. I've never met anyone who captures my heart, voice, tone and spirit so perfectly. Pauleanna is detailed, a thorough researcher, consummate professional who adds tremendous value, meets deadlines and always delivers par excellent work."

- Ivy McGregor, Principal, Ivy Inc.

"Pauleanna is hard-working and highly committed to her craft. She demonstrates initiative, intelligence, and creativity. She is always willing to help someone out in the time of need which speaks to her ability to function as a productive member of a team and to project an open, friendly persona to others regardless of their level of expertise. She is a great direct communicator and knows how to raise and discuss common issues and problems in a processual manner. She is the type of individual that you can count on and trust and those traits are exceptional and speak to her character. In all, I would have to say that Pauleanna is a fine, well-balanced person with an abundance of positive qualities. I highly recommend her."

- Rakia Reynolds, Founder & CEO, Skai Blue Media

"I hired WritersBlok to help architect the brand story for KT Winery & Mom Juice. After examining our existing copy, Pauleanna and her team revised, refreshed, and reproduced various brand assets ensuring beautiful storytelling, clarity, flow, and consistency in both the voice and narrative. They did an absolutely phenomenal job. I can't recommend Pauleanna's strategic lens enough! After working with multiple communications companies and left disappointed, hands down working with WritersBlok was the best and most thorough experience. 10/10"

- Kristin Taylor, Founder & CEO, KT Winery

"Working with WritersBlok was and is currently a top-notch experience! You can probably imagine the overwhelming joy I felt when I signed my first ever published book deal... followed by anxious thoughts like, "will I have time to write?! Is this a good chapter idea?! What order should I write this in?!" Writing a book is NO JOKE but I'm genuinely grateful that the WritersBlok helped me create a very detailed outline of my book proposal to submit to my publisher! By the way, the book proposal/outline was so well received that a university (along with my publishing company) picked it up and will be selling it in their bookstores! I am going to be a best-selling author!"

- Isis Breanna Woods, Business Coach & Digital Marketing Strategist

Let's improve your performance through better storytelling.

The goal is to scale your reach and attract high-value clients. However, trust and influence is only gained through strategic communications. Storytelling is most powerful when business leaders truly understand its anatomy.

You're an excellent fit if you have:

- An established business, but require the right tools and action plan to level up your brand story
- A clear focus and mission, but need help delivering it to your audience
- A coaching mindset that is committed to the process, open to trying new approaches, and ready to take action
